Court of Impeachment in the Case of Sulzer

Votes Unanimously to Admit Any and All Testimony.

SCHIFF'S TESTIMONY HELPS

Prosecution Will Try to Get Him to Qualify It.

Defendant's Counsel Content to Sit Back and Wait.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 25 .- The court of impeachment for the trial of Governor Su'zer today unanimously voted in favor of admitting all testimony in reference to alleged campaign contributions received by the governor whether specified in the articles of impeachment or not. The point arose on the testimony of Mossir Tekulsky, a New York liquor dealer, and former president of the New York City Liquor Dealers' association. He has known William Sulzer for 23 years, he said. and considered himself an intimate acquaintance. When he started to tell about the organization's contributions to Sulzer, Attorney Marshall objected, supporting his objection by a lengthy supporting his objection by there was argument. He maintained there was nothing in the articles of impeachating this witness. The ment regarding this witness. The purpose of the articles of impeachment, he contended, was to give notice to a respondent of the nature of the accusations against him and to afford him time to prepare to answer.

Presiding Judge Cullen then rendered a long opinion on the question at the conclusion of which he announced he would overrule the motion and sub-mit it to a vote of the court. The preslding judge said that if the present case were a criminal trial he would be disposed to exclude evidence of charges not specified in the indictment.

"This case, however," he said, "should construed with greater latitude He added that article six of the impeachment had mentioned the receipt respondent had an opportunity to ask

Court adjourned for the noon recess with Tekuisky still on the stand. At the outset of today's session the question whether the use which Governor Sulzer made of the $2,500 given him by Jacob H. Schiff, constituted larceny, precipitated a heated argument. No final decision was rendered by the Upon its determination depended the question as to whether the governor is guilty of the most serious charge against him, in the event that it should be shown in every instance that no restriction was placed by the donors on the gifts of money received by Mr. Sulzer during his campaign.
